FAMIGLIA

Cielo

DELIVERING GREAT VALUE WINES SINCE 1908!

PINOT GRIGIO

Cielo e Terra is a family owned and operated business that strives to promote and develop the Colli Berici territory to it's full potential, offering excellent wines in different market segments all over the world. The company has taken the place as the leader of the large-scale retail trade in Italy, with an ever-increasing presence in foreign markets.

The Berici Hills (Colli Berici) is a mountain range of ancient volcanic origin rising between Verona and Padua, whose northern slope hosts the City of Vicenza. The hills' exposure to the sun and mild climate favor almost all Mediterranean vegetation, so vine-growing has prospered here for thousands of years. Wine-making is always based on cold vinification and soft pressing to enhance both fragrance and complexity. Cielo promotes organic viticulture and agricultural practices to develop natural vine-growing. The "Eco" Project of Cielo e Terra funds a charity in Sierra Leone to build water wells. Water; essential to life and wine production.

TASTING NOTES

This Pinot Grigio presents a bouquet of bread crust and green apple. It is fresh and versatile, displaying bright flavors throughout any meal. It pairs perfectly with appetizers, soups, fish and white meats.

BREAD & BUTTER

NAPA - CALIFORNIA

BREAD & BUTTER IS THAT THING
YOU CAN COUNT ON...

CHARDONNAY

These wines are inspired by the bread and butter of California winemaking. The goal is to enhance and compliment, through the winemaking process, what happens in the vineyard. These winemaking tools have been expertly utilized to craft great fruit into great wine.

Bread and butter are flavors and aromas that develop during the winemaking process either through the use of oak fermentation and aging or malolactic fermentation. 'Bread' refers to oak, which imparts flavors and aromas of toast, nuts, and dough. 'Butter' refers to malolactic fermentation, which adds buttery flavors and textures into a wine. Both affect flavor, aroma, and texture in the finished wine.

TASTING NOTES

The color is a rich, deep golden yellow with bright flashes of brilliance. On the nose, it begins with a combination of bright tropical and citrus fruits. Then the notes of cream and dough begin to rise to the surface and balance with the fruit. The floral and oak aromas develop last. This Chardonnay opens up with wonderful flavors of apricot, lemon zest, papaya, banana and honeysuckle. Buttered popcorn and vanilla oak characters emerge from the background to soften the fruit. There is a great balance of acidity and richness that makes Bread & Butter both refreshing and decadent.

LEESE - FITCH

SONOMA'S STORY, CALIFORNIA'S HISTORY

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Leese Fitch owner, The Other Guys, is part of the Don Sebastiani family of companies. One of the oldest winegrowing families in California.

In 2010, The Other Guys was taken over by its current president, August Sebastiani (fourth generation). August and his sister Mia strive to reclaim the time-honored philosophy of a hard-working, family-run operation while maintaining their reputation as being one of Sonoma County's premier-quality wine producers.

The wines of Leese Fitch celebrate the restoration of the Leese Fitch building located in Sonoma Square. Built in 1836, this historical landmark in Sonoma Plaza was named after Jacob Leese and Henry Fitch, brothers-in-law to General

Mariano Vallejo, the founder of the town of Sonoma.

All Leese Fitch wines are sealed with a revolutionary wine closure known as a ZORK closer. This innovative lid offers the convenience of a screw cap and the celebration of cork. This closure is easy to remove by hand, simple to reseal and is completely recyclable. No corkscrew. No crumbling.

No cork taint. No worries!

HONORING THE ROOTS OF WINEMAKING
IN ALTO ADIGE

PINOT GRIGIO

Back in 1869, the founder of the Wilhelm Walch Winery showed visionary zeal in converting a simple Jesuit convent into a deep underground cellar, right in the heart of the small medieval town of Tramin in the beautiful, world-class winemaking district of Alto Adige.

In the last decades, the Walch family has carefully expanded their historical winery and purchased several vineyards that have thrived in the rich soil of the region. The premium quality of their products has gained respectability throughout the entire wine district.

The historical stone cellar has gained international notability renown for its detailed oak casks, hand-carved in 1880. Alto Adige is the finest region in Italy for growing Pinot Grigio and the winery's minimal intervention promotes flavor to the fullest extent.

TASTING NOTES

ESTATE SAUVIGNON BLANC

The Giesen Estate Sauvignon Blanc is a blend of 60 vineyards, spread across the length and breadth of Marlborough's famed Wairau Valley. This vintage also has a small selection of fruit from the more southern Awatere Valley. The soils range from free draining alluvial/silt to clay loams. Having such a range of vineyards offers a wide range of maturity parameters in terms of sugar and acid profile, but also a huge aroma and flavour spectrum. Our philosophy is to crop vines in balance with each site optimising the vines ability to ripen fruit evenly and consistently to produce wines that reflect the true terroir of each site. We feel this is a true representation of the classic Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc.

TASTING NOTES

Zesty and vibrant, with a base of rich tropical fruit, kaffir lime, lemon grass and herb aromas. Generous fruit flavors on the palate to the core, with juicy acidity and a fresh, dry finish.

FAMILY ROOTS RUN DEEP SAUVIGNON BLANC

Allan Scott is a name synonymous with wine in Marlborough. As one of the first independent wineries to establish themselves in New Zealand back in 1990, Allan Scott Family Winemakers have made a name for themselves in this highly competitive industry.

Family roots run deep. Nobody has more experience growing grapes in Marlborough than Allan Scott. He planted some of the region's most famous vineyards, including the very first, and has worked here every vintage since.

With its distinctive combination of cool nights, sunny days and young soils, Marlborough is recognized as one of the world's greatest wine regions.

The Rapaura area of Marlborough, along the Northern edge of the Wairau Valley, has become particularly prized and is home to the Allan Scott family vineyards. They produce aromatic, estate grown wines of high quality at reasonable prices.

TASTING NOTES

The aromatics in this Sauvignon Blanc are distinctly tropical. Indulging the nose, the initial sweet passion fruit then gives way to hints of lime, classic gooseberry, and dried herbs. But it is the palate where this wine embodies all that is Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. The entry is smooth and fruit driven, which accelerates through to a mid-palate burst of energy from the firm lively acidity with a lingering, mouth-watering finish.

PEIRANO ESTATE Vineyards

OLD WORLD MEETS NEW WORLD

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Family owned and operated for over 100 years, the history of Peirano Estate Vineyards is a tale deeply rooted in Lodi history and the importance is felt by every member of the Peirano family.

In 1992, Lance Randolph, the fourth generation of Peirano to farm the 300 acre estate, began making Peirano wine simply for himself and to prove Lodi could produce desirable wines. After considerable praise for his ability to make elegant wines, he decided to start bottling and selling Peirano wine using his estate grown grapes. Since then, Peirano has won numerous awards for producing top of the line wine using many of the old techniques valued by founder Giacomo Peirano. Legend has it that Lodi was named after Giacomo's famous racer horse, Alta Genoa, he brought from Lodi, Italy.

Nestled between the Sacramento-San Joaquin River Delta and the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, Lodi has an ideal Mediterranean climate with deep, rich, sandy-loam soils and abundant quality water. Lance Randolph uses the best of his great grandfather's farming methods and implements new techniques to create the best viticulture practices.

GRÜNER VELTLINER

Weingut Dürnberg is one of the wine estates that have been pioneering the development of a “new Weinviertel style”. And Christoph Körner is a Weinviertel native with heart and soul – who proves with every new vintage that Austria’s most undiscovered wine-growing area has incredible potential. The wines: they breathe freshness and balance. And while they are crystal-clear like a Winter's night, they demonstrate complexity and finesse as well.

It can be said without exaggeration that Dürnberg wines comprise all of the virtues that are expected from Austrian wine. The cool character of the white wines, with their vital acidity structure, is the result of an exceptional terroir. Thanks to the excellent soils and a highly favorable climate, the grapes reach an ideal level of ripeness and develop vibrant aromas and flavors. Red wines from the Weingut Dürnberg vineyards in Falkenstein are distinguished by their power and fruitiness.
